

Redway Community Services District

Organizational Chart

This organizational chart describes the hierarchical structure of the Redway Community Services District. These are the positions for which there exist clearly defined job descriptions as well as the reporting structure. The green boxes represent positions currently filled by consultants. The grey boxes represent positions that are not currently filled. There is also overlap between certain filled positions. For example, the current General Manager also fills one of the OIT positions.

